Payment of all other sums due to us hereunder is due upon delivery of invoice or may be deducted by us from monies coming into our hands and belonging to the Landlord.

In the event a tenant ceases to pay rent as a consequence of your non-compliance to fulfil your statutory obligations we shall be entitled to our fee if we let the property whether instructed orally or in writing.

No refund of any fees received in advance will be given should the Tenant cease to pay rent due to your non-compliance to fulfil your obligations under Section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 and any subsequent amendments other than the lawful exercise of a release or break clause by the tenant.

Should the Tenant lawfully exercise a release or break clause our fee will be payable up to and including the last lawfully due rent payment and will cease to be applicable thereafter.

If the Tenant vacates the property before the end of the agreed term and we secure a new Tenancy covering the remaining period the fee relating to the overlap will be refunded.

Any sums due to us by yourself under these Terms & Conditions shall, if not paid on the due date, be subject to interest at the rate of 4% above the base rate of the Bank of England from time to time which shall accrue on a daily basis from the date such sums become due until payment.

4 (b) Commissions from Third Parties:

In the normal course of business we may be offered commissions by third parties, such as insurance companies, to whom we might introduce our clients' business.

We will not solicit such commissions but will select such companies on the basis of their competence and/or availability.

4 (c) Exclusion of Liability:

We are not liable for any rent, or non - payment or any other of the Tenant's and/or Occupiers liabilities nor if there are insufficient funds available for any outgoings payable on your behalf.

Should your Tenant fall into rent arrears any legal proceedings must be instituted by the Landlord and all costs are the responsibility of the Landlord.

In the event we become aware of any breach of tenancy including late payment or non-payment of rent, we will contact you and the tenant accordingly and advise you to contact your legal representative to take the appropriate action.

We do not directly employ inventory clerks or contractors, we arrange for them to carry out their responsibilities on your behalf, consequently we cannot be held responsible for any error or omission on the part of any independent inventory clerk or contractor instructed on your behalf.

We do not undertake to forward to you any letters or packages received at the property after your departure. It is your responsibility to make arrangements with the postal authorities for the re-direction of your mail.

You undertake to indemnify us against all costs and expenses properly incurred by us in lawfully carrying out our duties on your behalf by virtue of this Agreement.

If we reasonably suspect any funds paid or payable under this Agreement or otherwise represent the proceeds of activities involving criminal acts, we will immediately take such action as is required of us by law.

4 (d) Confirmation of Instructions:

No variation to these terms will be effective unless agreed by us in writing.

We reserve the right to give to other agents details of premises to let on a commission-sharing basis in the absence of instructions to the contrary. No additional commission is payable by you in such cases.

4 (e) Extra-Ordinary Management:

5. LANDLORDS STATUTORY LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

Below is a brief outline of the primary statutory requirements placed on Landlords when they are renting their property. See also our Lettings Guide for Landlords or ask us for further information if you require clarification on any of the following.

5 (a) Stamp Duty Land Tax

With effect from 1 December 2003, under the Finance Act 2003, the Landlord no longer has any liability for Stamp Duty on any Lease created for a residential letting after that date.

The sole responsibility for the payment of the Stamp Duty Land Tax, which was introduced under the Finance Act 2003, where it is applicable, is placed upon the Tenant.

5 (b) Right to Let

Before entering into any agreement to let your property you must check whether there are any restrictions to your doing so and whether consent needs to be obtained.

Failure to obtain such consents where required may result in invalidating the Tenancy.

When you sign this contract with us you are confirming that you have the right to instruct us to let the property and that you have obtained all the necessary consents.

Stadium Residential cannot be held liable for any difficulties arising as a result of your failure to observe these requirements.

5 (c) Superior Landlord/Freeholder - If you hold the property on a Lease you must ensure that your Lease permits you to let the premises and that you are granted consent to do so. You must also ensure that the letting is for a period expiring prior to the termination of your own Lease.

5 (d) Mortgage Provider - If the property is subject to a bank loan or mortgage, in most cases permission will be required from the lender before the property can be let.

5 (e) Insurer - Most insurance policies require you to notify them if the property is to be let. Failure to do so may void the policy.

6. TAXATION

Any person or organisation receiving income from a property situated in the UK might be liable to tax on that income, whether or not his normal place of abode is inside or outside the UK, and is required to disclose such income to the Inland Revenue.

In addition, all records relating to that property are required to be kept for up to six years.

We are unable to advise you on tax matters and recommend that the services of a Chartered Accountant are used to ensure all allowable outgoings can be offset against tax.

6 (a) Landlords Resident Overseas - You are required to notify us immediately if your residency status changes at any time during the Tenancy or any extension of renewal of the Tenancy, and to provide us with your current residential address.

In accordance with the Finance Act 1995, agents are required to deduct tax at the basic rate from rent monies net of expenses prior to paying these monies to Landlords resident overseas, and account to the Inland Revenue quarterly and at the end of the tax year.

All overseas Landlords may apply to the Inland Revenue for Exemption, which if granted, allows the agent to pass the rent monies to the Landlord without deduction of tax. We strongly recommend that Exemption application is made if applicable,

Should you not wish to apply, or if Exemption is refused, we are obliged to submit quarterly returns to the Inland Revenue, we reserve the right to make a charge not exceeding £50 inclusive of VAT per annum to cover our administration costs.

7. LANDLORDS REPAIRING OBLIGATIONS

Section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 as amended by Section 116 of the Housing Act 1988 places an obligation on Landlords to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas, electricity and sanitation including basins, sinks, baths and sanitary conveniences and the installations of space heating and heating of water.

When you sign this contract and instruct us to act as your Managing Agent you are confirming our permission to maintain your property at your expense as stated in the Tenancy Agreement subject to the provisions of the above Act.

8. SAFETY REGULATIONS

Landlords Statutory Legal Obligations:

Responsibility for compliance with the statutory safety regulations or any re-enactment, is and remains the personal obligation of the Landlord.

Failure to comply with safety legislation is a criminal offence and can lead to prosecution, fines or imprisonment or both.

- (i) Furniture & Furnishings: The Furniture and Furnishings \(Fire\) \(Safety\) Regulations 1988 (1989, 1993 & 2010)

All upholstered furniture, permanent or loose fittings, soft furnishings, beds, mattresses, pillows and cushions supplied to a property forming part of a letting must comply with these Regulations.

Furniture sold by a retailer after 1 March 1990 must comply and carry labels to this effect. Where there are no labels, or there is any doubt regarding compliance, the items should be replaced.

It is illegal to let a property with furniture which does not comply.

When you sign this contract with us you are confirming that you have ensured that all furniture and furnishings in the property comply with these Regulations.

- (ii) The Gas Safety (Management) (Amendment) Regulations 2023
<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukxi/2023/284>

Landlords are responsible for ensuring that all gas appliances and installation pipe work in tenanted premises are maintained in good order and in a safe condition so as to prevent risk or injury to any person.

The Regulations require that all appliances and pipe work are checked for safety by a GAS SAFE certified gas engineer prior to the commencement of a Tenancy and every 12 months thereafter.

A record of the safety check must be supplied to each Tenant and a copy kept by the Landlord and/or his Managing Agent for at least two years.

It is illegal to allow a Tenant to occupy a property without a valid Gas Safety Record.

For properties under our Management Service we will arrange on your behalf for the safety checks to be undertaken, subject to the provision of access for the contractor.

For properties not under our Management Service, we require a copy of the current and all subsequent Gas Safety Records, prior to the commencement and throughout the Tenancy.

Where we are not instructed to do so and the Landlord fails to provide us with a current Gas Safety Record prior to the commencement of the Tenancy, we will not release keys and grant occupation to the Tenant of the property until this is received, which will result in the Landlord being in breach of the terms of the Tenancy.

Where failure to provide a current Gas Safety Record results in the Tenancy not proceeding, a fee of £300 inclusive of VAT may be payable to us by the Landlord.

- (iii) Electrical Inspection Conditions Report The Electrical Safety Standards in the Private Rented Sector \(England\) Regulations 2020 \(legislation.gov.uk\)

Where a tenancy starts on or after the 1st July 2020, landlords are required by law to provide tenants with a copy of a valid Electrical Inspection Conditions Report (EICR) prior to the tenancy commencing.

- (iv) The Electrical Equipment (Safety) The Electrical Equipment \(Safety\) Regulations 2016 \(legislation.gov.uk\).

Landlords must ensure that ALL electrical appliances and the electrical supply is 'safe' and will not cause 'danger'.

We recommend that an inspection is undertaken prior to the commencement of a Tenancy and at regular intervals thereafter.

For properties under our Management Service we will, if instructed, arrange on your behalf for the inspection to be undertaken, subject to the provision of access for the contractor.

- (v) Part P Building Regulations (Electrical Safety in Dwellings)

From 1st January 2005 any works, repairs or maintenance undertaken on domestic electrical installations in certain areas of a property must be carried out by a competent person registered with an organisation providing an approved self-certification scheme.

Wherever possible when instructing contractors on a Landlord's behalf to carry out applicable electrical repairs and maintenance at a property, we will only instruct such approved contractors.

- (vi) Building Regulations The Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarm \(Amendment\) Regulations 2022 \(legislation.gov.uk\)

All properties built since June 1992 must be fitted with mains-operated interlinked smoke detectors / alarms on each floor. Whilst properties built before that date are not included under the statutory requirement, we insist that all properties to be let are fitted with smoke alarms and these are regularly serviced. We can, if requested, arrange this on your behalf at your expense. It is a landlord's responsibility to ensure that smoke detectors are fully operational on the date that any tenancy commences.

Carbon Monoxide monitors/alarms must be fitted wherever a combustible appliance is installed and tested in working condition. Stadium Residential can instruct contractors to install these at additional cost.
